

The Grange School – Curriculum Overview 2018 - 2019

	EYFS	Maths	English	RE	Theme Area	PSHE	PE	ICT
1	Are we nearly there yet?	Number recognition, rote counting, 1:1 counting. Positional language	Listening to and talking about stories. Beginning to use phonic knowledge to read and write simple words or sentences.	Harvest Festival	Autumn colours We're going on a bear hunt designing and making.	Being me in my world Feelings and emotions.	Gymnastics Ball skills – aiming and rolling	Using a mouse
2	Let's Celebrate	Practical addition and subtraction. Talking about shapes, weight and capacity.	Using phonic knowledge to read simple words and sentences. Beginning to write with some independence.	Celebrations: Diwali The Christmas story	Celebrations – Diwali, Bonfire Night, Christmas story, songs and art activities. People and communities- talking about personal celebrations.	Celebrating differences	Dance Ball skills – throwing and catching	Using simple maths and English programs.
3	Once upon a time...	Counting objects reliably to twenty, ordering numbers. Recognise, create and describe patterns	Reading and retelling traditional tales through drama.	Chinese New Year	Traditional tales Little Red Riding Hood, Three little pigs, Goldilocks, Gingerbread man Talking about good and bad.	Dreams and goals	Dance Physical literacy	Simple word processing
4	Zero to Hero	Counting forwards and backwards. Saying the number which is one more and one less Talking about distance, time and money.	Listening to stories about super heroes. Beginning to write simple words, phrases or sentences. Reading and understanding information texts.	Finding out about Easter.	Finding out about people who help us. Thinking about healthy practises.	Healthy me	Gymnastics Physical Literacy	Simple programming - Beebots
5	Let it grow	Solving addition and subtraction problems Talking about size and weight	Writing labels and captions using phonic knowledge. Reading an increasing range of fiction and nonfiction texts.	Finding out about Ramadan	Finding out about living things and looking after the environment.	Relationships	Dance	Logging on and selecting a program.
6	Ahoy there!	Solving problems involving sharing, doubling and halving Exploring shapes and using mathematical language to describe them.	Creating our own stories through speaking, drama and writing. Explaining and understanding stories with others.	Special Books – what can we learn from stories from different religions?	Talking about pirates and how they lived. Looking at the seaside and its features. (summer)	Changing me	Moving in different ways (Racing - Sports day)	Algorithms– beebots